

PLEIN AIR PAINTING

Talented multi-media artist and sculptor Heiner Hertling will present an introduction to plein air painting. Author and TV host of "Your Brush With Nature," Hertling will give a demonstration and discuss techniques, along with a dose of his unique humor and wit.

Fri, 2/13 at 11:30 a.m. The Art Institute of Charleston
24 North Market Street

ANTIQUE NATURE PRINTS LECTURE

SEWE welcomes back Gilbert Johnston, founder of Antique Nature Prints. Mr. Johnston's collection includes original Audubons printed by Havell, as well as early botanical, fish, insect and bird prints by noted 17th-19th century artists. He will present a new lecture entitled, "Passion for Nature: The Development of the Scientific Art of Natural History," which will focus on the work and lives of the foremost early creators; Mark Catesby, Alexander Wilson and John James Audubon. Sat, 2/14 at 11 a.m. Riviera Theatre

WOLF EMPIRE – AN INTIMATE PORTRAIT OF A SPECIES

From award-winning photographer Scott Ian Barry comes this comprehensive and stunning visual record of wolves, published in black-and-white photography. Barry creates a highly intimate look at wolves and their often mystifying way of life, and shares his narrative of the photographs and unique personal observations about wolf behavior gathered from his more than 30 years of experience as a wildlife photographer.

Fri, 2/13 at 1:30 p.m.; Sun, 2/15 at 1 p.m. Riviera Theatre